Rebecca has recently joined the real estate industry with 8 years experience in multi-family property management. Her area of focus is metro Boston and its surrounding suburbs.

Rebecca has superior customer service training and wealth of knowledge in real estate. She has managed multiple teams, leasing processes, and operations of communities of up to 400 apartments homes in various real estate markets that range from Haverhill to Canton. Rebecca has been responsible for the performance and sales of multiple multi-family communities.

Rebecca's first hand knowledge of the Boston real estate market coupled with her ability to understand housing trends, allows her to properly serve her customers and accurately represent their homes. Her experience in customer service allows her to understand her clients wants and needs, which allows for a more pleasurable home search experience.

Rebecca was born and raised in New England and moved to Southern California after serving four years in the U.S. Marine Corps. Rebecca is an amazing salsa dancer and loves to cook and read in her spare time.
