David has been in the real estate industry since 2008. His main focus has been Metro Boston & surrounding suburban areas. David has managed several multi unit communities consisting of hundreds of units in each. He has also worked as analyst in a leading property management firm. His expertise lies in leading and managing team.

In May of 2016, he became the proud co-owner of Home Finders Realty.

David's mission is not just to get clients a great deal on their home, but to grow a sustainable and loyal base of clients, agents, and a prosperous and growing business.

His level of expertise has increased from his start in the industry. He has been able incorporated the lessons he learned in the property management industry and as an analyst to bridge many different perspectives of a deal together and get the best possible value out of a property.

David has an undergraduate degree from the University of Massachusetts, Boston where he majored in Political Science and minored in Economics. David also holds a Masters degree in Business (MBA) from Northeastern University where he had a dual specialization of Innovation Entrepreneurship and Marketing.
